

Family and Consumer Sciences Scholarship General Guidelines

- Applicants will be considered for all scholarships for which they are deemed eligible by the Resource Allocation Policy committee.
- The actual number and amount of scholarship awards will be determined by the Resource Allocation Policy committee and will be based on available funds. Some scholarships may not be awarded if sufficient funds are not available.
- To be considered for any scholarship that lists financial need as a selection criteria, applicants must have a current FASFA filed with the Financial Aid Office and must sign the financial release form included in the scholarship application packet.
- Scholarship awards are applied directly to the recipient's Student Account for the fall 2017 semester after the fall 2017 Census Day.
- Recipients must be enrolled as a student at Illinois State University and continue to meet the selection criteria as of fall 2017 Census Day.
- Normally, recipients are limited to one scholarship award per year.
